Subject: Update on Rulemaking for Numeric Nutrient Criteria

ALL:

After careful consideration, the department has decided to postpone the proposed initiation of rulemaking for Numeric Nutrient Criteria until January 21, 2014.

We will post the FINAL draft rule package on our webpage on December 17th, 2013 so folks can review prior to January 21st.

Thanks again to everyone who have spent a lot of time and resources on this project.

-George
